8. Appendix 1- Degrees of Dissent

Degrees of Dissent:

Assent with Reservations

“I think this may be a mistake, but I can live with it.”

Going along with the group so that we can move forward, but not fully on board - not stopping what the group wants to do.

Stand Aside

“I personally cannot do this, but I will not stop others from doing this”

Basically, taking yourself out of the equation - You do not agree, but will allow the group to move forward. (A sizable number of stand asides may indicate that support for a proposal is too weak.)

The content of the dissent is noted in the minutes.

Block

“I cannot support this or allow the group to support this, it is against our principles.”

Blocking is a rare and extreme form of dissent taken only if you honestly believe that one of the Traditions or Concepts is directly violated by a proposal, or that some fundamental moral position would be violated.

A participant who blocks must be able to articulate which and how a tradition, concept, policy or spiritual principle fundamental to NA is being violated.

A block must be based on a generally recognized principle, not a personal preference. Before a concern is considered to be a “valid” block, the group must have accepted the validity of the concern, and a reasonable attempt must have been made to resolve it.

Chinook Area NA Policies and Procedures

Consider:

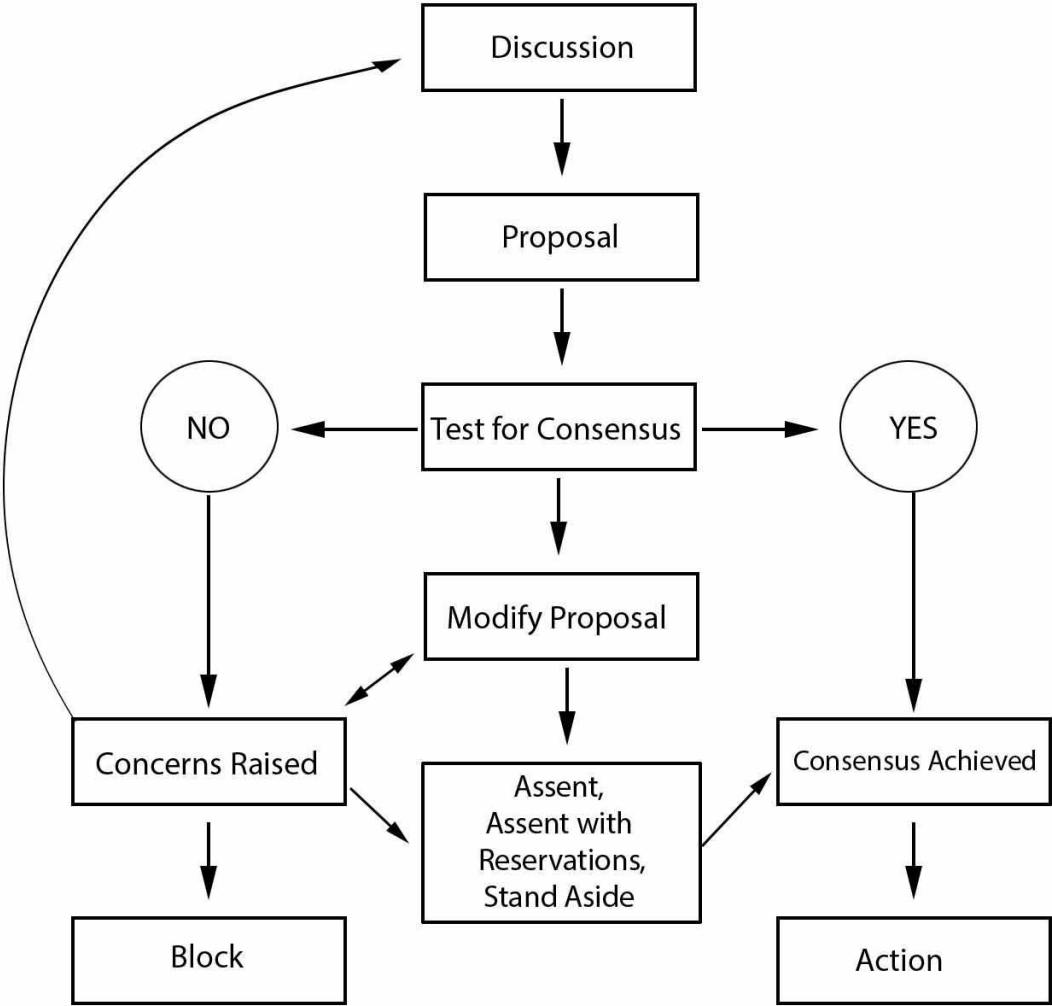

Blocking a proposal is a last resort and only done in rare and extreme cases

Can I put aside my personal opinion to allow the rest of the group to move forward?

Am I able to pass on making a point, when someone else has already made it?

Straw Polls are for information to assess where the body is at. They are not votes.

How It Flows

Chinook Area NA Policies and Procedures

9. Appendix 2 – Chinook ASC Ground Rules

1. We strive to achieve consensus whenever possible. When possible, decisions are reached by asking if there are any objections.
2. We will focus on establishing unity, mutual respect, and trust at the beginning of each meeting.
3. We will strive to achieve our stated objectives for each meeting. In order to use our time effectively, we will follow our agenda and support the facilitator in moving us through discussions. If in the course of discussion, other issues or tangents arise, they can be identified for future discussion.
4. Our meetings and breaks will start and stop on time.
5. We will be critical of ideas, not people, focusing on opportunities, options, and solutions.
6. We will discuss issues openly at ASC meetings. Individual members may have conversations about Area issues to seek clarity or information; however, if one of us has a concern or an issue, we will bring it to the full body. We agree to address our issues through facilitated dialog and group discussion.
7. We will make every effort not to limit ourselves by expressing negative thinking. While it is the body's responsibility to discuss problems and difficulties, we will stay solution-oriented.
8. During each ASC meeting, any member can request a session to alleviate a burden or conflict and to refocus on trust and mutual support.
9. We affirm that deliberation will be balanced, with no one person or perspective dominating the discussion and every member contributing in some fashion.
10. We agree that only one person should speak at a time and should have the full attention and focus of the body. There will be no sidebar conversations or other distractions not related to the meeting activity.
11. We agree not to gossip or to let conflict fester, but to face disagreement in a direct and respectful manner.
